House of Representatives

OLC 78-5115/b

Dear Loch:

I am forwarding charts of DDS&T's relationship with academia covering the years 1970 to present. You will note that they are broken into categories: "paid," "unpaid," "research/consultant" and "lecturer." I should add that the figures in the enclosed charts represent the best available information. By this I mean that the information is partially based on corporate memory since there are few back up files.

Further, we have restricted our definition of "contact" to those individuals who were seen on official business three or more times in any given calendar year. As a result, we have excluded information on contacts made during personnel recruitment trips in conjunction with the Office of Personnel; excluded are contacts made by DDS&T personnel during approved training courses; excluded are contacts made during attendance at seminars, conferences and professional society meetings; and also excluded are those contacts made by DDS&T personnel who give lectures and teach at local colleges and universities.

I think that the charts will be sufficient to indicate trends and give you a sense of the breadth of official DDS&T contact with the academic community. I hope you will find them useful.

Sincerely,

Assistant Legislative Counsel
